The freshness of the air from the Sun Pure SP-20C reminds me of when I lived on the ocean...I will never be without my SP-20C. C.P. California

Within a few hours I could tell the difference in our home, using the Electro Breeze air cleaner. A.J. Florida

We bought the Electro Breeze air cleaner to keep the dust down caused by our neighborhood construction. T.F. Arizona

Excellent filter! The manufacturing in our area makes the air very bad...this air cleaner is a must for my home. A.L. Netherlands

I live in a condo community and I tell all my neighbors about the Electro Breeze air cleaners. B.M. Maryland

Best service I have ever received from an online business. I love our new SP-20C's. R.L. New York

I have been using the Electro Breeze for years. My wife and I both have allergies and we are pleased with the performance of the Electro Breeze compared to the Micro Power Guard. Thank you for the cost savings and the great service. E.L. Florida

I am a microbiologist and I understand the importance of ultra-violet for taking care of germs and bacteria. The Electro Breeze Duct Mount UV kit is an excellent idea for every home. S.K. Mississippi

Customer service means a lot and you won't be disappointed with Air Life. Great products that work and excellent customer service. D.C. Illinois

I was given an SP-20 by a friend and it has changed my life. I have allergies and this machine gives me the relief I need. J.S. Michigan

Air Life saves me money and helps me keep my allergies under control. T.F. California
